Dear Xandex Customer

Please note the 6990 Black ink PCN has a revision update per the attached document.

Xandex is providing the specific 'ink batch' number for the first shipment of the ink from the new manufacturing site.

Customers will now be able to define the shipment of ink from the new manufacturing facility by the ink batch number.

Please note the first shipment from the new manufacturing site may occur anywhere from May 1 to July 31, 2013, depending on depletion of the 6990 ink inventory currently available at Xandex.
